Attention: Mary Ann Drescher

Dear Mary Ann:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2018 Exempt Organization return, as follows...

2018 Form 990

2018 WI Form 1943

Be sure to review the returns prior to signing as you have final responsibility for all information included in the returns. If there is anything on the return you do not understand, ask us to explain. We want you to be satisfied with the accuracy of your return before filing. Copies of each return should be retained for your files.

We are enclosing any documents you gave us to assist in the preparation of the returns. We do not maintain original client documents in our files.

Federal income tax law states that it is the taxpayer's responsibility to maintain tax-related documents, including copies of previously filed tax returns, for a sufficient period of time. Generally, the Internal Revenue Code statute of limitations period, in which items on a tax return can be questioned, is three years from the date the return is filed. Many states have a four year statute of limitations.

We generally recommend that you keep supporting documentation for a minimum of six years; records that support basis for items in the tax return should be kept indefinitely. We also recommend that a copy of the actual tax return be kept indefinitely. We believe keeping supporting documents for a six-year period will protect you from most circumstances, including longer statute of limitation periods that some state or other regulatory agencies may impose. At the same time, we believe this policy will save you from paying unnecessary storage costs.

As a tax return preparer, we are required to give you a copy of your tax return when it is completed and maintain a copy in our files for a minimum of three years. We have and will continue to comply with this federally mandated requirement. If you have any specific questions, please feel free to contact us.

Pursuant to disclosure regulations, tax-exempt organizations must make available for public inspection a copy of their application for exemption indefinitely and their annual tax returns for the preceding three years. These documents must be made available without charge at the organization's principal, regional and district offices during regular business hours. In addition, an organization generally must furnish a copy of the application and annual tax returns to anyone who requests them in person or in writing. An exempt organization can avoid providing copies by posting all the documents on its website or at another organization's website as part of a database of similar materials. Specific requirements must be met to fit within this exception. As a courtesy we have provided a Public Disclosure Copy of your annual return for the current year, including Form 990-T if applicable.

If we have provided you tax advice in connection with the preparation of your U.S. federal tax return and associated tax planning services, this advice is not intended or written to be used by any taxpayer for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer by the Internal Revenue Service, and it cannot be used by any taxpayer for such purpose.

We value our relationship with you and thank you for your trust and confidence in allowing us to serve you. If you have any questions regarding the returns or any other services that we can assist you with, please do not hesitate to contact us. Some of our best clients come through referrals from existing clients. If you know of anyone who could benefit from our assistance, we would be pleased to speak to him or her.

Sincerely,

Laura Schweitzer, CPA
